

15th International Trade Fair for Plastics and Packaging Technologies & Products held on 24-27 May was an intense participation is organized by the Yagmur Fuarcilik. The exhibition held on the 15th of hundreds of industry participants, hosted thousands of visitors.

İPAF 12 İSTANBUL FAİR exhibited products of technology, design, competitive power and with investor coming from 44 countries and 60 cities plastics and packaging industry has proven to be a key project to carry forward the vision of the fair. Arbiter of the world exports of the sectors; leading companies that technology, design and innovation took place in İPAF 2012 have proven their strengths. İPAF profile of participants, moved to first place in terms of quality, too many investors from Turkey and abroad to visit the fair and the fair provided a significant reach commercial size. PACK-IST as Flexible Packaging Special Section, İPAF'12 received great interest a new concept of product exhibits. With this concept, İPAF Fair, the largest packaging manufacturers and exporters in Turkey has included product designs. in the field of Packaging and Plastic Machinery İPAF Fair is occurring technological developments, innovations in Turkey and in the world maintained its leadership presentation.